1973 NESHONOC

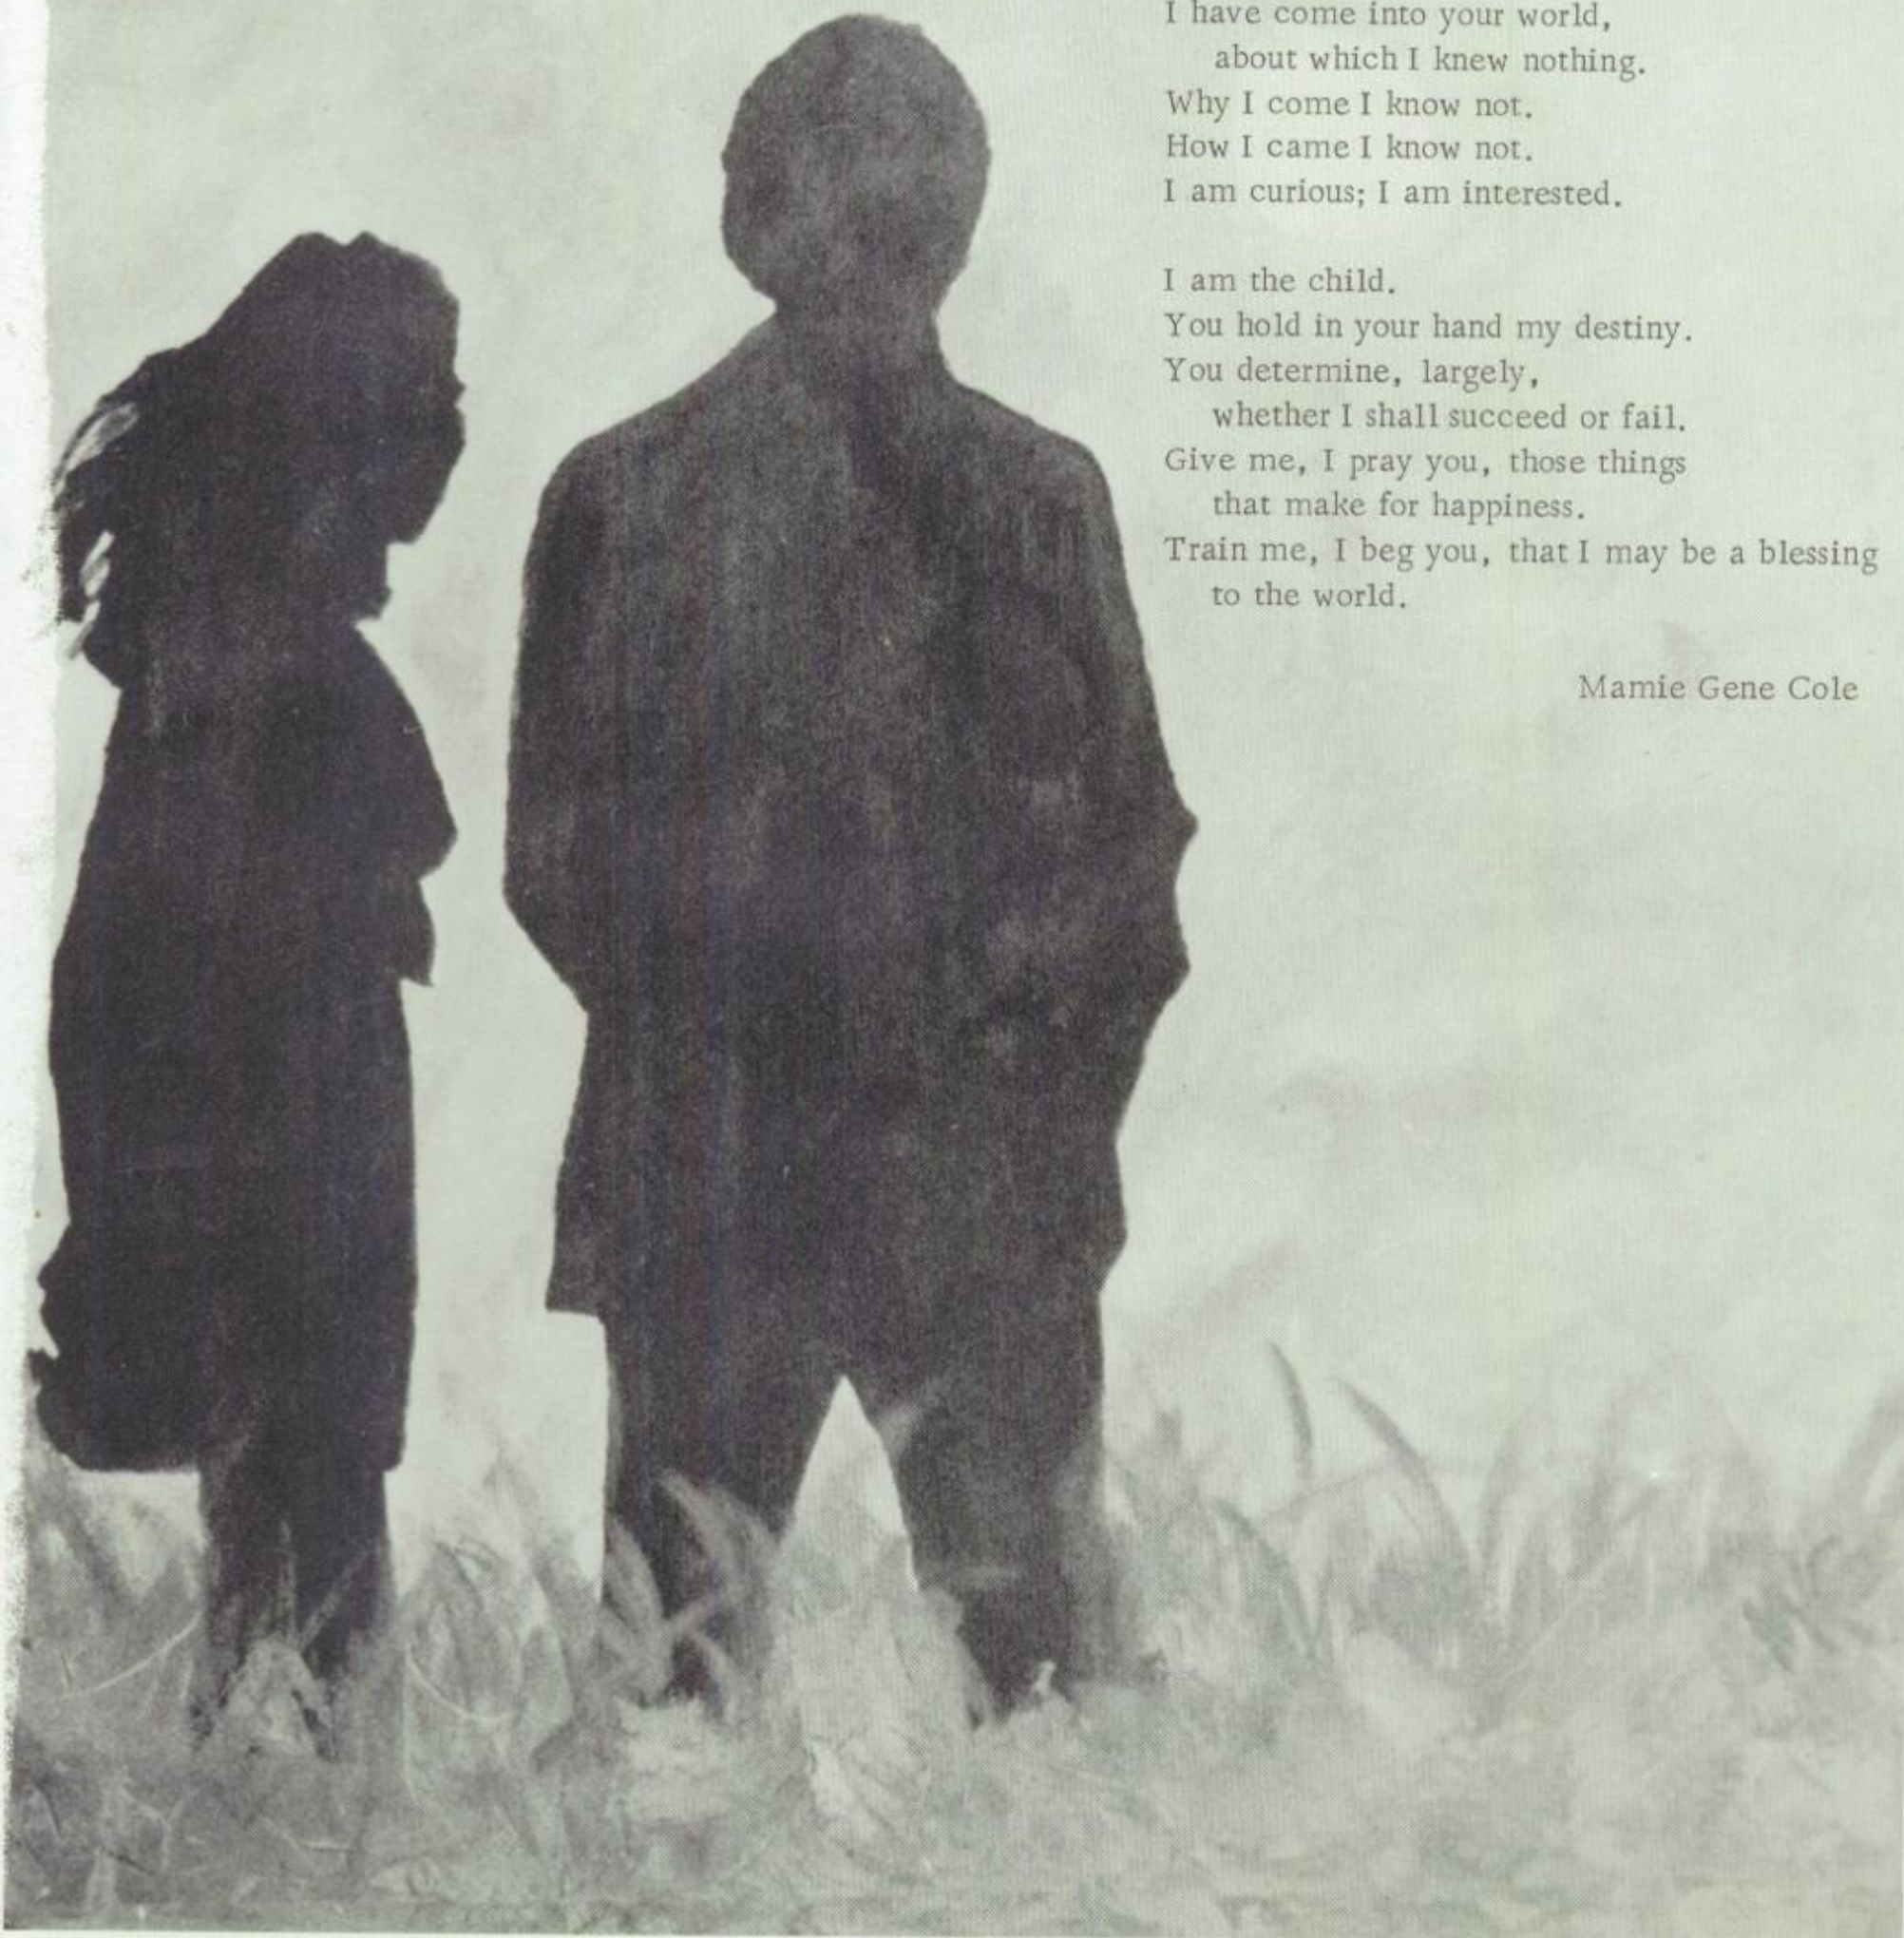

West Salem High School
West Salem, Wisconsin

I am the child.
All the world waits for my coming.
And the earth watches with interest to see what I shall become.
Civilization hangs in the balance,
For what I am the world of tomorrow will be.

I am the child.
I have come into your world,
about which I knew nothing.
Why I come I know not.
How I came I know not.
I am curious; I am interested.

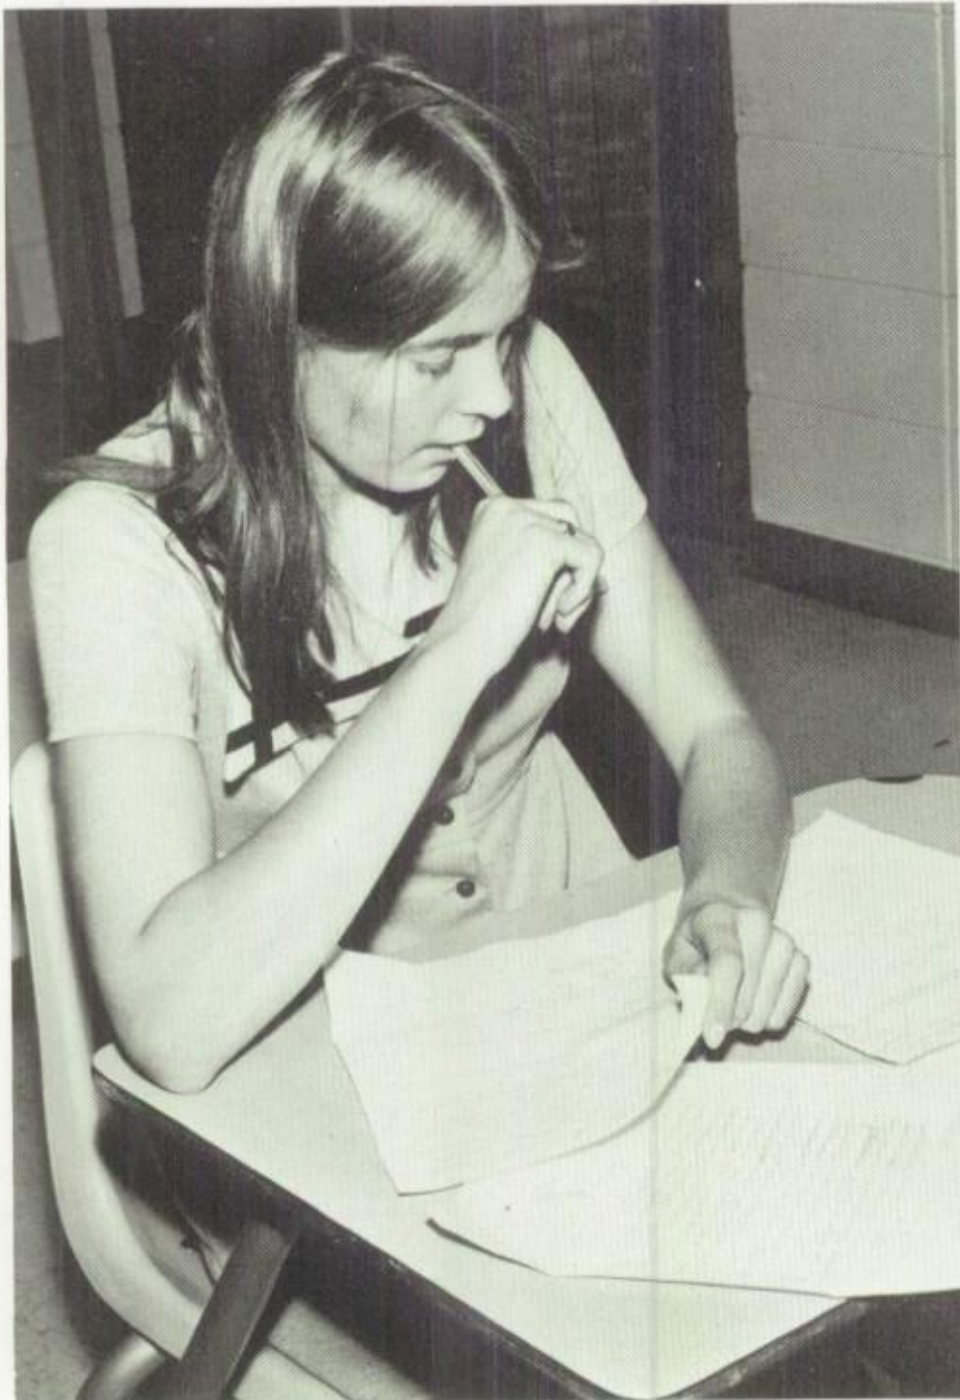

I am the child.
You hold in your hand my destiny.
You determine, largely,
whether I shall succeed or fail.
Give me, I pray you, those things that make for happiness.
Train me, I beg you, that I may be a blessing to the world.

Mamie Gene Cole

Quest of Youth:

*A search for identity, a desire for acceptance.
A time for renewed hope, a concern for involvement
. . . to alleviate the loneliness of life.*

*A questioning of values, daydreaming
to escape reality.
An enthusiasm to confront
the task at hand
... to resolve the frustrations and discouragement of life.*

A conflict with yesterday's ideas and tomorrow's expectations.

*A pursuit of independence, a striving for individuality
... to overcome
our moments of indecision.*

*The longing
for competition,
The dread of defeat.
An understanding and love for our fellow man
... to realize our goals
and attain lifelong happiness.*

Through NHS

Early in the fall, Honor Society members took time out from their regular duties to enjoy a mosquito-infested weiner roast.

At induction ceremonies for four seniors and twelve juniors on October 24, 1972, the initiates were reminded of their responsibilities to NHS concerning scholarship, leadership, character and service. Four sophomores, recognized as provisional members, take part in all activities of the organization throughout the year.

Other events of the year included a magazine drive, a Sock Hop in February and a tutoring program. Along with running errands for senior citizens, members also remembered the elderly on holidays.

Student Participation

Student Council coming through!

Pat Quinn, Eric Ender, Kent Beebe, Mark Johnson, Diane Gilbertson, and Sue Moliter plan agenda for upcoming student forum.

The foremost goal of the 1972-73 Student Council was liaison between students and the administration. Sensitive to the needs of the student, the Council conducted quarterly student forums to allow students to be heard.

Under the advisorship of Mr. Robert Fortney, the Council inspired school spirit by selling activity calendars, buttons and pom-poms and sponsoring the Homecoming, the Christmas Dance, and Mini-Homecoming.

Jill Fairburn happily accepts Steve Brauer's invitation to dance.

Queen Mary Kay and her court--Debbie Gilbertson, Karen Hammes, Nancy Luedtke, Nancy Leicht, Tamla Severson, Laurie Elliott--aglow with happiness.

of Poignant Memories

A golden arch and sparkling fountain under a canopy of blue set the mood for "Softly Whispering I Love You", motif for the 1972 Junior Prom.

More than fifty couples danced to the music of Fourth Adventure and viewed the 10:30 coronation of Queen Mary Kay Gullickson and King James Jeffers, who reigned over the night's enchantment.

Mary Kay Gullickson serves pre-prom party guests--Tim McClintock, Debbie Gilbertson, Tamla Severson, Laurie Elliott, Rolf Jostad, and Nancy Leicht.

Judy Metzger and John Engebrecht pause to enjoy punch as they listen to the music.

Dancers enjoy the music of Fourth Adventure.

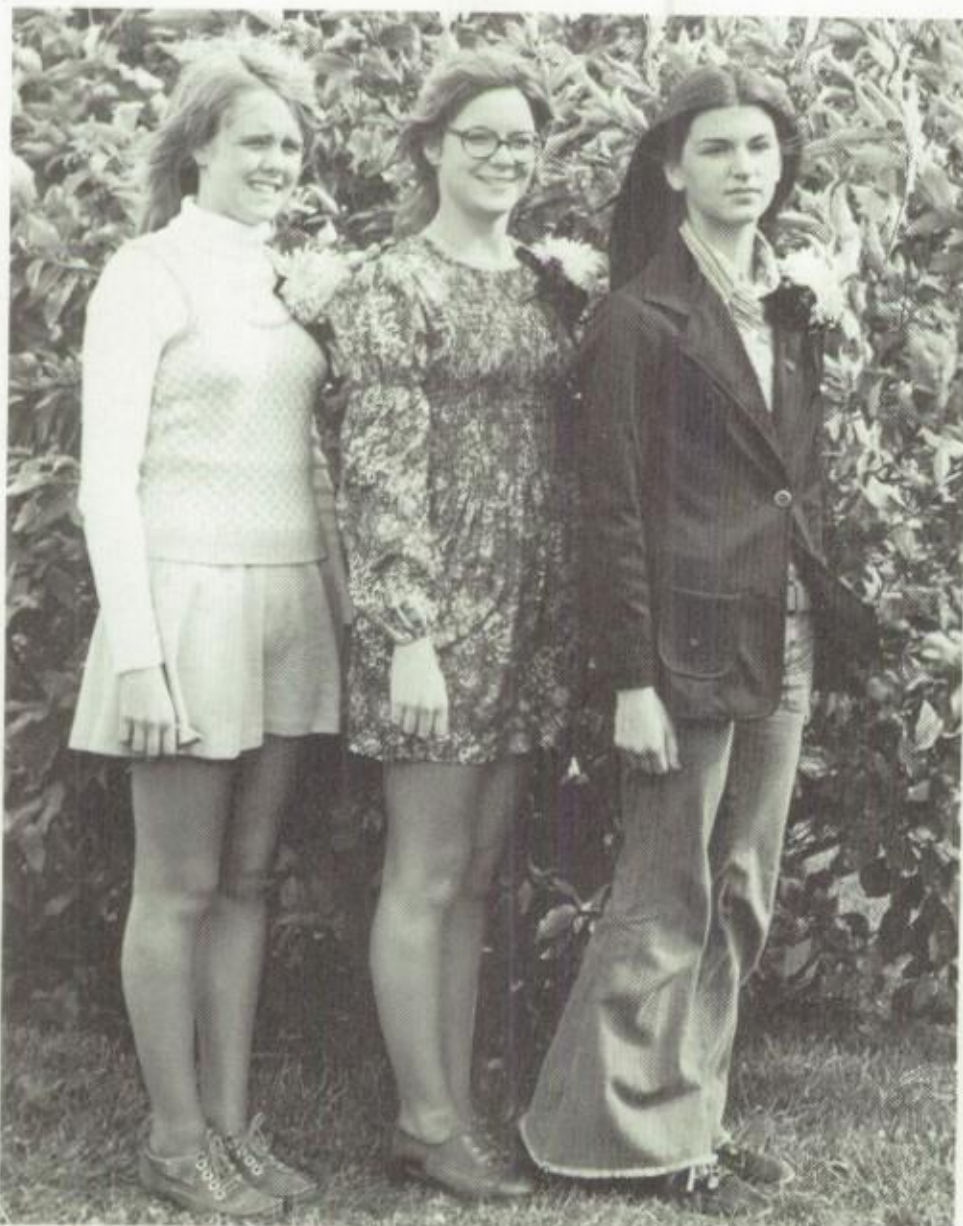

Windblown Royalty Debby Yellick, Queen Karen Hammes, and Ellen Schober beam with happiness.

Mister Ugly, Dan Bahr, and Princesses Debby Yellick and Ellen Schober smile for the photographer on parade route.

Princesses Dorothy Olson and Maxine Silha smile with Queen Cindy Nelson in anticipation of a fun-filled evening.

Swinging Social Season

"Cartoons" set the theme for Homecoming week 1972. A pep rally and bonfire on Thursday night fired Panther spirit. For exhibiting the greatest enthusiasm during the week, the junior class earned the Spirit Award. With a blockbusting performance, the sophomores achieved first place with their skit. The Class of '75 also racked up a first place in competition among floats with "We're Hot Stuff". Following the game, more than two hundred students and alumni danced to the music of the "Molly Maguires".

King Ramon Stelloh and Queen Cindy Nelson reigned over the Harvest Dance, "We're Almost There", sponsored by F.H.A. - F.F.A and their advisors, Mrs. Roberta Severson and Mr. Dale Weber, respectively. In a setting of cornshocks, pumpkins, and fall foliage, students and alumni enjoyed the music provided by "Storm".

The 1972 Panther Harriers, in their first year of existence, placed second in the Conference meet and fourth in regionals, missing a sectional berth by one place. First place honors, in the Conference meet, went to Scott Stamstad with a course record of 13:36.

The West Salem W-Club, under the direction of Bill Riberich, completed another successful year. Its members have worked to promote sportsmanship and good conduct in the student body.

The Girls' Athletic Association has striven to establish physical fitness by getting girls not involved in gymnastics to become active in other forms of athletics.

Harriers Set Records

Mrs. Jasperson checks the pairings of the tennis tournament with GAA officers--Ellen Schober, president; Sue Balmer, vice-president; Nancy Bina, secretary.

Another First—A Girls' Track Team Emerges

Girls' Track Team--First Row: Janet Riniker, Nancy Leicht, Denise Kneifl, Karen Hammes. Second Row: Linda Gorniak, Sue Groth, Theresa Hass, Ellen Schober, Nancy Luedtke, Janine Martin. Third Row: Charlou Schneider, Kathy Osgood, Bonnie Oldenburg, Marla Brauer, Rosanne Hundt, Michele McClintock, Donna Seeger, Jenelle Becker, Karen Carlson.

This year, West Salem High School organized its first girls' track team. Nineteen girls participated in various field and running events. Competing in four meets, the girls achieved unusual success by attaining a 10-1 record. To earn a letter, a contestant must accumulate twenty points by placing in meets with other schools.

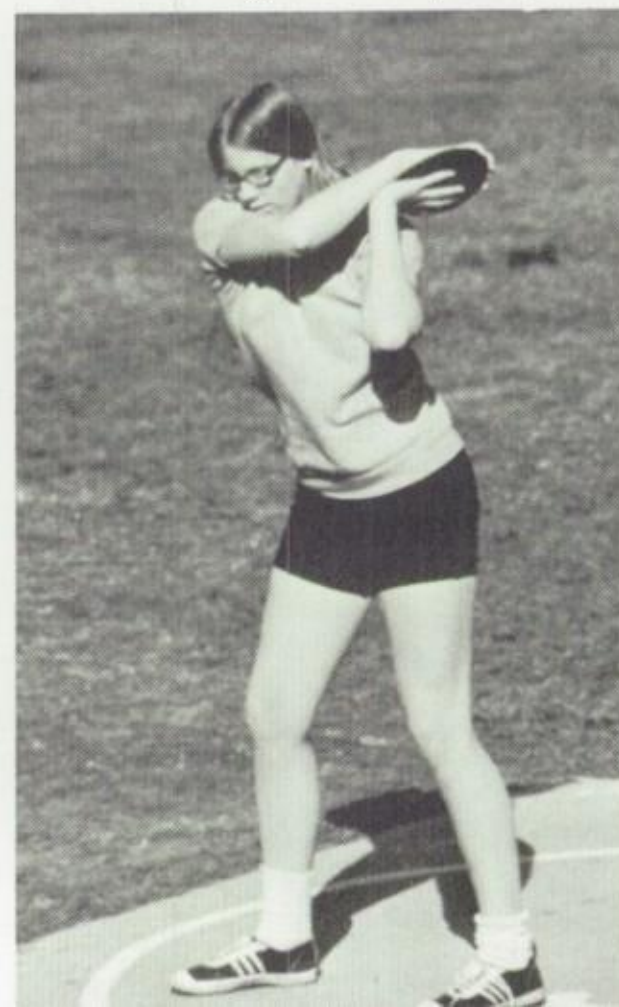

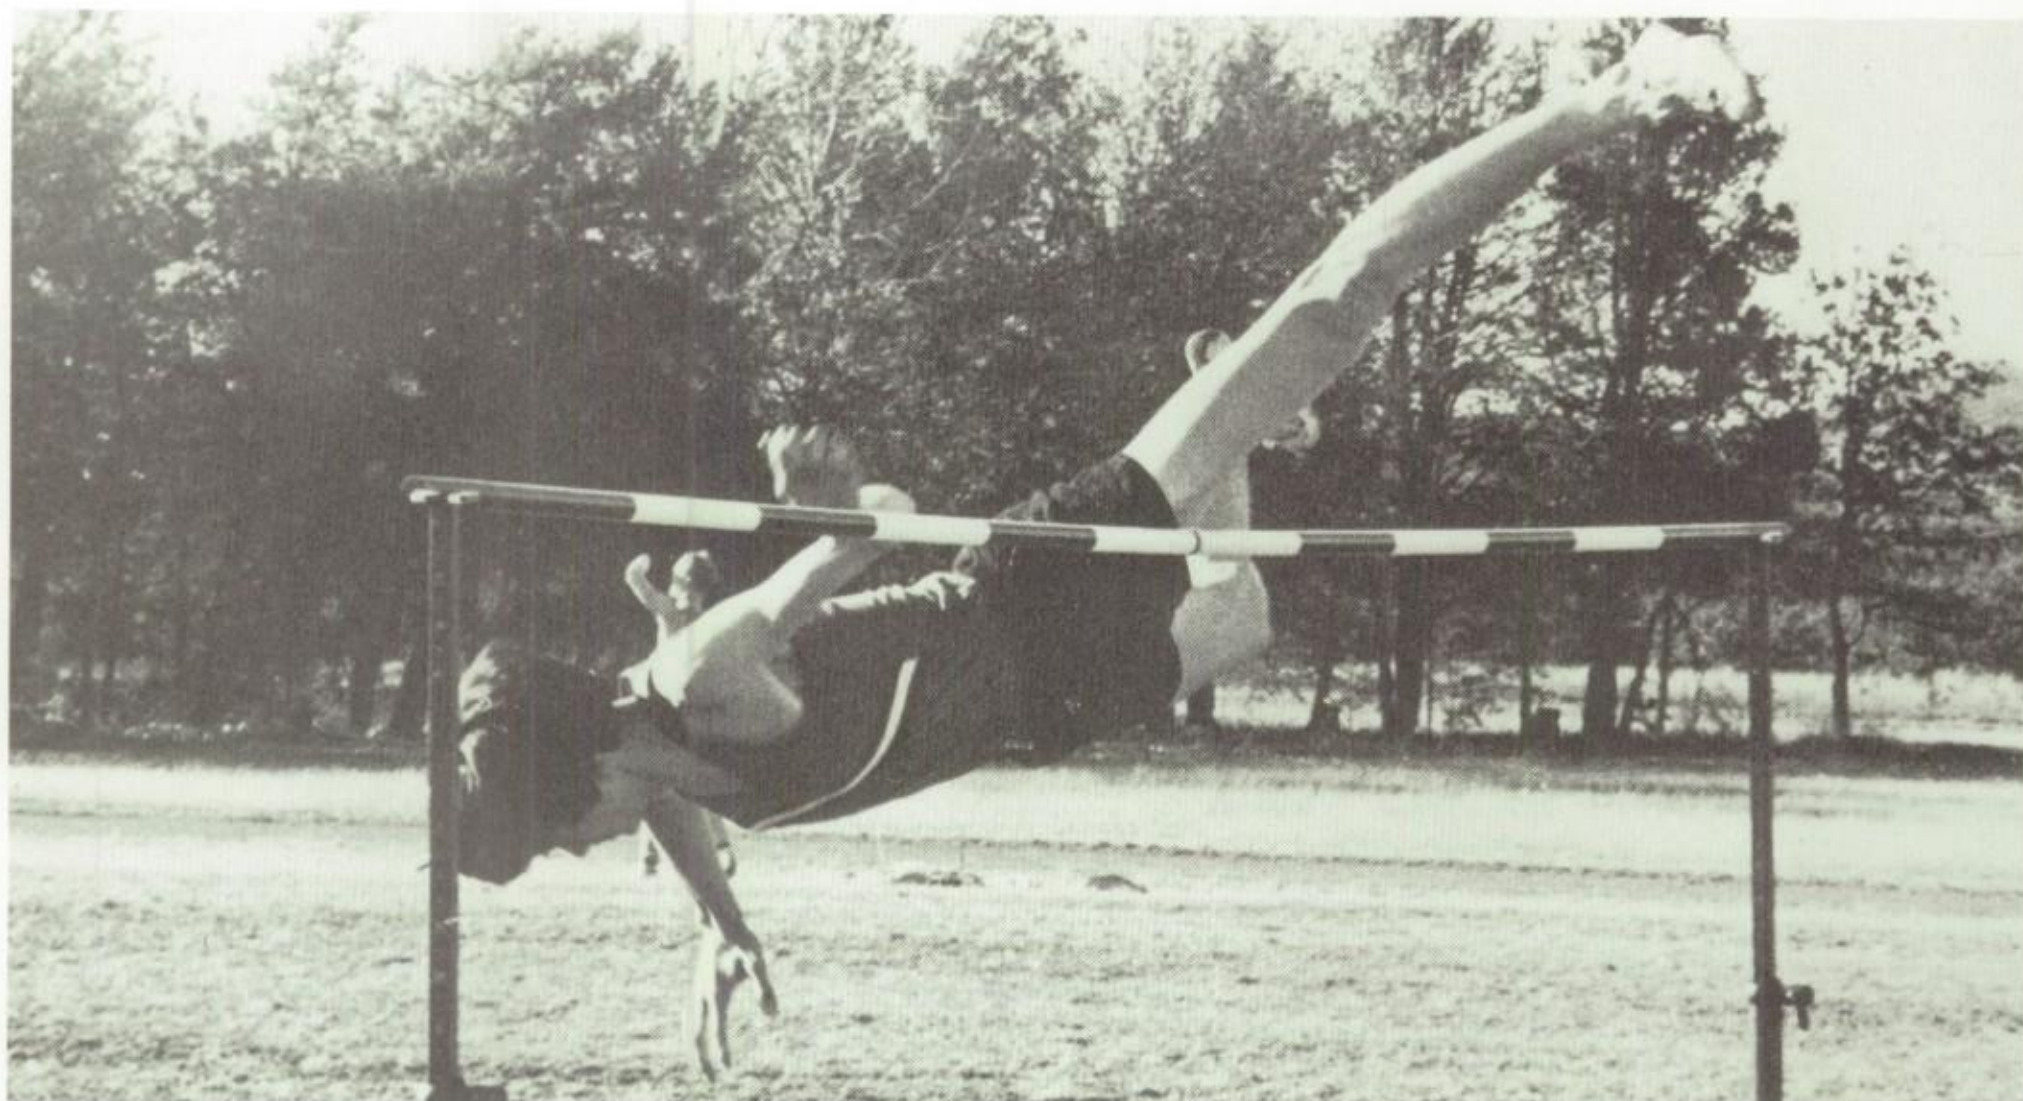

Rosanne Hundt displays her ability to long jump.

Nancy Luedtke gains height with effort.

Concentrating on the discus throw, Marla Brauer gains team points.

Jeff McClintock bounds over the bar with grace and agility.

Cindermen Capture Third at State

Steve Black lets fly another fantastic throw.

The 71-72 Salem thinclads, under the inspiration of Steve Budnik, rolled into a third place finish at the state track meet. Steve Brauer led the way finishing first in the 220 yard dash, and anchored the winning 880 yard relay team. Grasping first at Regionals and runner-up at Sectionals helped to make the season a memorable one. A strong contingent of underclassmen will prove the 72-73 cindermen as tough as ever.

Jim Jeffers clears the timbers on his way to the tape.

Steve Brauer braces himself for a perfect landing.

Jim Ming demonstrates correct technique in the triple jump.

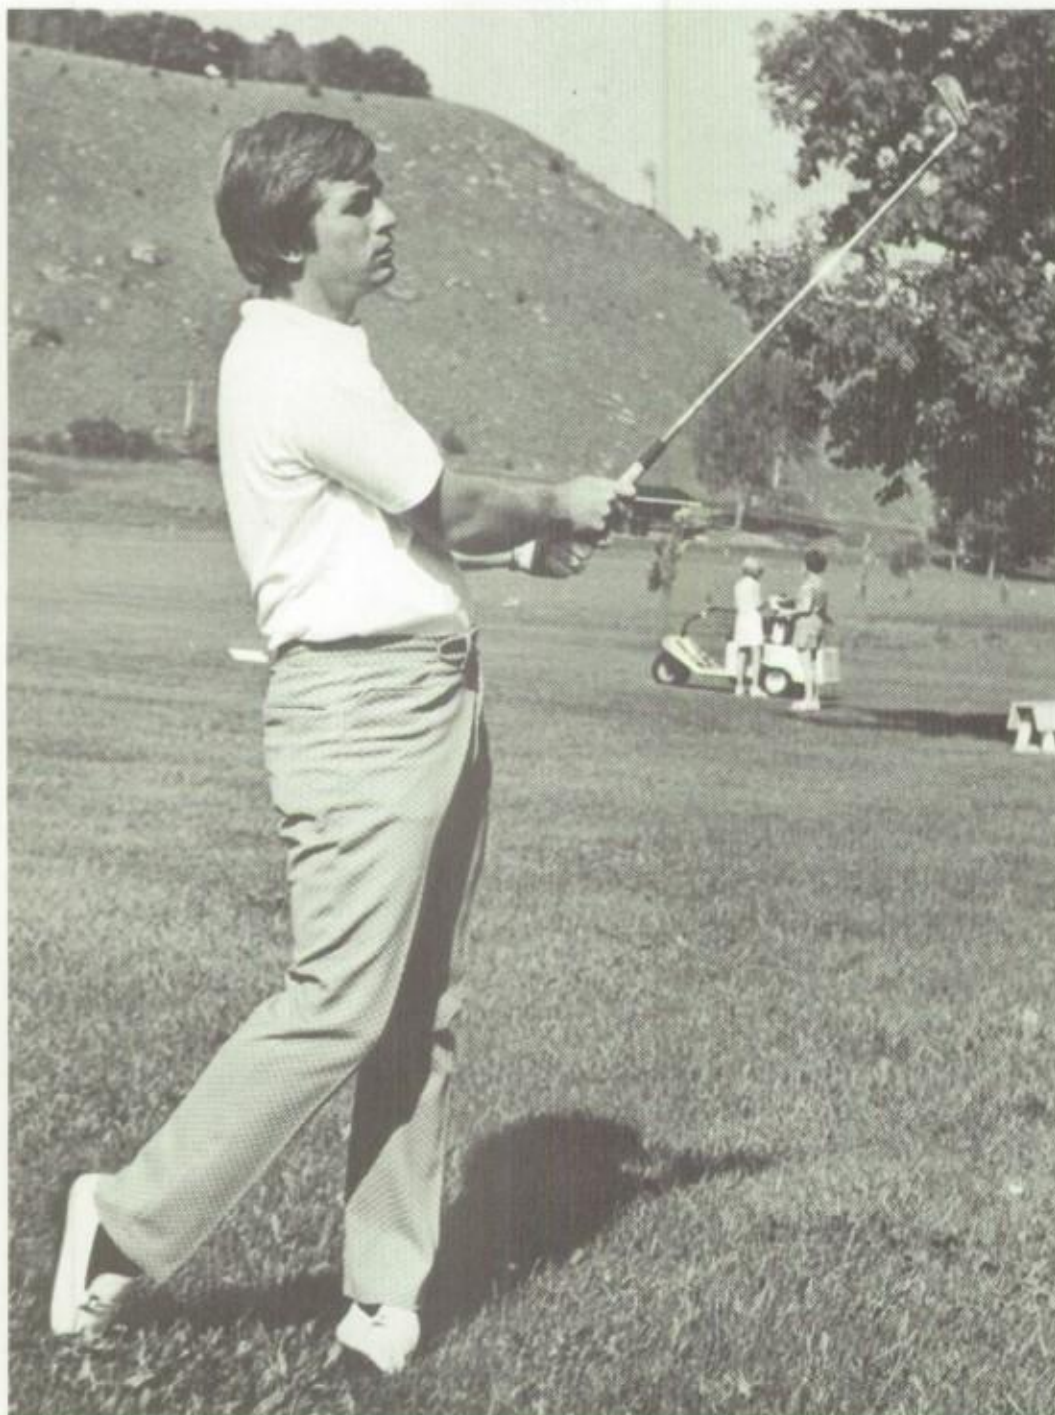

With determination and desire, Scott Stamstad lacerates the cinders.

Jon Hetland blasts a wedge close to the pin.

Coach Harry Warriner unloads a shot enroute to his winning 68.

Golfers Top Coulee

The 1971-72 Panther golf team compiled a 29-1 conference record to out distance second place Onalaska. Tim Morris paced the action by capturing second medalist honors in the conference.

Coach Harry Warriner showed his prowess by finishing fourth out of seventy-two Midwest Golfers at the Regional qualifying tournament for the United States Open.

With four returning lettermen, the outlook for next year looks very promising.

Bob Bartz unleashes a shot to the green.

1971-72 Coulee Conference Champions--Jon Hetland, Jim Mau, Bob Bartz, Dave Onsrud, Coach Harold Warriner. Absent: Tim Morris, Keith Kleinke.

Mark Rogers prepares to connect.

Salem One Short of Sectional Berth

Although the 1972 baseball team was off to a slow start, as the season progressed the game produced many exciting moments. Midway through the season the Panthers handed Onalaska their first loss defeating them 5-2. The climax came with a 5-3 victory over Bangor and a 4-2 win over West Grant, sending the Panther team into the Regional finals.

Dave Onsrud runs hard to beat the throw.

Junior Varsity Coach Bob Fortney instructs the offense on last minute strategy.

Panthers End Frustrating Season with Wins

Bob Gorniak patiently awaits participation on the field.

The 1972 Panther football season had many ups and downs. Several teams paid tribute to the Salem defense, complimenting them on their crisp, hard hitting. The selection to the All-Coulee Conference team of Steve Brauer, offense; Jim Jeffers, defense; and Jim Ming to both the offense and defense, climaxed the season. Several returning starters will form a strong foundation for the 1973 Panther Team.

B-Team cheerleaders--Roberta Elliott, Teresa Hass, Sue Groth, Marla Brauer--whoop it up!

Allen Newberry, photographer for Ellickson Studios, discusses candid photography with NESHONOC editor, Jill Witt.

John Piper '74, Ron Martin '74, Bob Bartz, Joan Schams '74, and Steve Brauer represent WSHS as Quiz Bowl contestants.

Graduates of 1973 Attain Honors

Chosen as outstanding student of Home Economics, Maxine Silha received the Crisco award.

Representing West Salem, Laurie Elliott vies for the title of Miss Teenage Wisconsin at Madison.

Mr. Cherney congratulates cross countryman Scott Stamstad for first place in coulee conference.

Voted by the faculty and sponsored by the American Legion and Ladies' Auxiliary to represent WSHS at Badger Boys' and Girls' State--Front Row: Laurie Elliott, alternate Barb Morgan, and Debi Sennes. Second Row: Alternate Jill Witt, Rolf Jostad, alternate Steve Brauer, Bob Bartz, and Dave Onsrud.

Members of the senior graduation committee select announcements. Seated: Scott Stamstad, Debi Sennes, Laurie Griffin, Barb Morgan, and Linda Schmidt. Standing: Paul Gilbertson, Debra Yellick, Jill Witt, and Donna Meyers.

Personnel Provides Friendly, Efficient Service

Mrs. Gertrude Wehrenberg cheerfully manages WSHS laundry facilities.

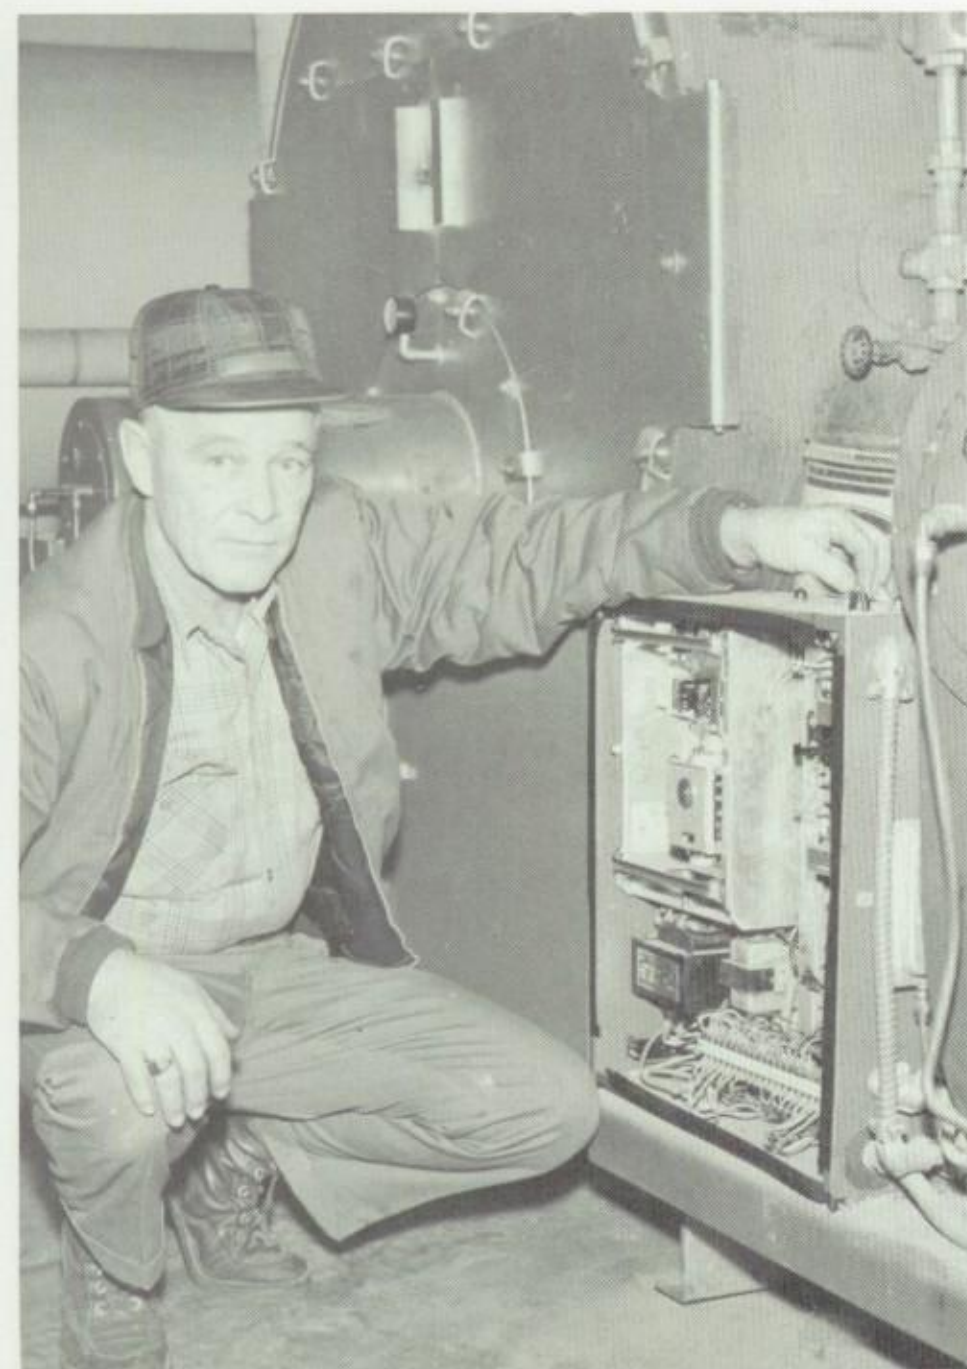

Beverly Hendrickson, Helen Kapelke, and Verda Drecktrah efficiently carry out office duties.

Safety is their business--Standing: Ansel Johnson, Donald Gensch, Henry Spate, Avery Hurst, Mary Lou Meyer, Alan Labus, Curtis Stavlo. In Bus: Orrin Schwier, Forrest Bahan, Larry Gensch.

School cooks--Mrs. Ethel Fuhre, Mrs. Alice Bolstad, and Mrs. Blanche

Donald Stavlo, engineer of maintenance, keeps the heating plant running smoothly all year round.

Tryggstad--serve nutritious meals daily.

Bill and Tom Matuska assist with custodial work.

Service with a smile--school custodians Harold Hartman and Bernard Repky.

*to each is given a bag of tools,
a shapeless mass,
and a book of rules,
and each must make ere life is flown,
a stumbling block,
or a stepping stone.*
